Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

All the children play together and enjoy themselves thoroughly, engaged in all sorts of games. It was a pleasure to observe how the deaf children enter into the spirit of the games and appear to feel thoroughly at home among their hearing comrades. Twice a week the pupils receive a meal at the school. During the hours of instruction the deaf children are in a room by themselves. where the teachers engage their attention and develop their powers of observation and reflection in many different ways. At first various games are played, and picture books are shown. After some time spent in this way, kindergarten work...
