State this in writing, as if you were making out instructions for a builder. Exercise 3. Compare a school-house and a church. Tell how they are alike and how they differ. LESSON CXXII Two Letters Exercise i. A friend is coming from another place to visit your school. Write a letter to tell him how to find the school building. You must first give him careful instructions how to reach it from the station, then how to recognize it when he comes to it. He will wish also to know how to find your room. You may make three paragraphs. Exercise 2. Suppose that a letter from your aunt tells you that the St. Nicholas is to be sent to you for a year as a birthday present. Answer her letter, thanking her for the gift, and telling her how you hope to profit by it. LESSON CXXIII Study Of Trees Exercise i. Read this lesson through; then, during the next two or three days, look sharply at such trees as you see, learn what you can about them, and be prepared to answer these questions: 1. What is a forest 2. What is a grove 3. What kinds of shade-trees grow in your town 4. Which are brightest in autumn 5. Name one that has a tall, straight stem. 6. Where do the branches commonly begin 7. Mention a kind whose main trunk stops short, and divides into branches....
