Elizabeth Robins Pennell (February 21, 1855 February 7, 1936) was an American writer who, for most of her adult life, made her home in London. A recent researcher summed her up as quot;an adventurous, accomplished, self-assured, well-known columnist, biographer, cookbook collector, and art criticquot;; in addition, she wrote travelogues, mainly of European cycling voyages, and memoirs, centred on her London salon. Her biographies included the first in almost a century of the proto-feminist Mary Wollstonecraft, one of her uncle the folklorist Charles Godfrey Leland, and one of her friend the painter Whistler. In recent years, her art criticism has come under scrutiny, and her food criticism has been reprinted.

Reviews

This composed ebook is wonderful. It really is written in basic words rather than hard to understand. You may like the way the writer composed this pdf.

This book can be well worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. It's been printed in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is merely right after I finished reading through this pdf by which basically changed me, modified the way I think.
