In the Far East. The situation in the far east practically remains unchanged. It is reported that the czar has left the issue of peace or war in the hands of Viceroy Alexieff on account of the difficulties of directing the negotiations and the necessity of immediate action. Admiral Alexieff has a high reputation not only as an executive seaman, but as possessing exceptional diplomatic qualifications. From reports received in this country Japan has proposed to Russia (1) that the two nations should mutually respect the independence and territorial integrity of Korea, (2) that there should be reciprocal recognition of the special interests of Russia in Manchuria and of Japan in Korea, and (3) that...
