Thank you, Mr. Chairman. My name is Steve El-liott, and I am senior vice chairman of Mellon Financial Corpora-tion, a leading global provider of financial services that has been serving its customers for more than 130 years. Headquartered in Pittsburgh, we are a specialized financial institution, providing in-stitutional asset management, mutual funds, private wealth man-agement, asset servicing, human resources and investor solutions and treasury payment services. Mellon has approximately 3. 6 tril-lion in assets in our management, administration or custody, in-cluding more than 675 billion under management. It is a pleasure to testify today before the subcommittee on the potential impact of Basel II on Mellon Financial Corporation and, more broadly, on the ability of U. S. banks to serve their customers and investors. It was an honor also to appear last June before this panel on this topic. I am grateful for Congress continued interest in the Basel Ac-cord. Your...
