By Wynne, John Stewart aka John Wynne

Riverdale, New York: Magnus Books, 2013. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition. Small octavo, pictorial wrappers. Signed by author on title page. A new, unread copy.  John Stewart Wynne's THE RED SHOES is a contemporary gay version of the classic Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale set in Manhattan. The narrator, John Laith, lives across the street from the Episcopal Seminary in Chelsea. Within its hushed chapel and welcoming gardens he finds solace, mourning the untimely death of his partner Frank and trying to recover from that loss. An active participant in a Twelve Step grief recovery group, he has a loving, supportive network of friends. Yet he feels something is missing, an ability to put his sorrow aside and once again feel the full force of life, its promise of excitement and abandon. An opportunity presents itself in the form of a present given to him -- a pair of shiny red shoes -- by a handsome eighteen-year-old modern dancer named Jared who arrived in the city nine months earlier fresh from the country. But Jared failed to make his mark in the city as an artist -- the red shoes didn't help him win auditions but spun...
