AFRICAN NOVELS AND THE QUESTION OF ORALITY

Indiana University Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW PRINT ON DEMAND., African Novels and the Question of Orality, Eileen Julien, Eileen Julien demonstrates that the search for oral origins in African literature is a quest for African authenticity. In a critique and revision of the conceptual category of orality as it has been understood and used by scholars, Julien stresses the transformation of narrative genres as an index of sociopolitical relations and authorial vision. "African Novels and the Question..."
