The Promise of Air

By Algernon Blackwood

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A review from the Theosophical Outlook, Volumes 3-4: If Christopher Morley were the author of Algernon Blackwood s The Promise of Air, he might have described it on the jacket as being about blue eyes, advertising copy, Cambridge, the Rolls-Royce, Chopin, Schumann, the movies, wireless, airplanes, revolving desk chairs, the Kingdom of Heaven, yellow wagtails, perfumes and furs, flocks of stars, the winter temperature of robins, and analytical chemists. Because I once wrote a story about a fellow with an obsession to be cradled in billows of air, this Blackwood book was wished on me to review. E. P. Dutton Co. s announcement of The Promise of Air had not made me eager to spend my money for the book. Neither had earlier reviewers appraisal of it delivered what the kids around Gross Park, Chicago, used to call the cardy blow in their Hamilton school days. The reviewers had declared with mild and reserved literary caution that one might like the book very much, or not so very much. It simmered down to a fifty-fifty case of plus...
