Harry L. Johnston (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Mr. Johnston. The subcommittee would come to order. Ladies and gentlemen, we have a very ambitious agenda today, in which we have an opening statement by Congressman Jefferson, a resolution dealing with the sense of Congress on Sudan, and we have seven members on two different panels. So I ask your indulgence. Those people that are on the panels, we have asked you to make your statements as brief as possible so that we can get to the question and answer period. I would like to say to start with, if there are any demonstrations at all, you will be warned. On the second time, you will be asked to leave. And if necessary, which I do not think will be necessary, will be removed by the security officers or the Capitol Police force. The subcommittee on Africa meets today to consider the future prospects for Africa s most populous country, Nigeria. It is some 14 years since Nigeria has been the topic of a hearing by this subcommittee, and this is far too long. Nigeria is one of the most important countries in Africa. With oil wells, with a well-educated and sophisticated middle class and a proud history, Nigeria is a natural leader within Africa. It is no exaggeration that events and trends in Nigeria affect all of west...
