I testify the Gospel of the grace of God. --St. Paul. APHILOSOPHER has said, The experience of one rational being is of interest to all who become cognizant of it. This is because we are so constituted as to be similarly affected by like causes. Let half a dozen of persons, far gone with pulmonary consumption, publish to the world their complete cure by the same remedy, and the glad news would flash across the continents and beneath the seas, irradiating with hope myriads of sick chambers. Hence the value of testimony. Justice, in her walk through the earth, leans upon this staff. The entire science of medicine and art of healing have been founded upon it. The shop of the apothecary has been filled through the attestations of cures. Who can better authenticate the healing than the healed patient?...
